HOBART HISTORY

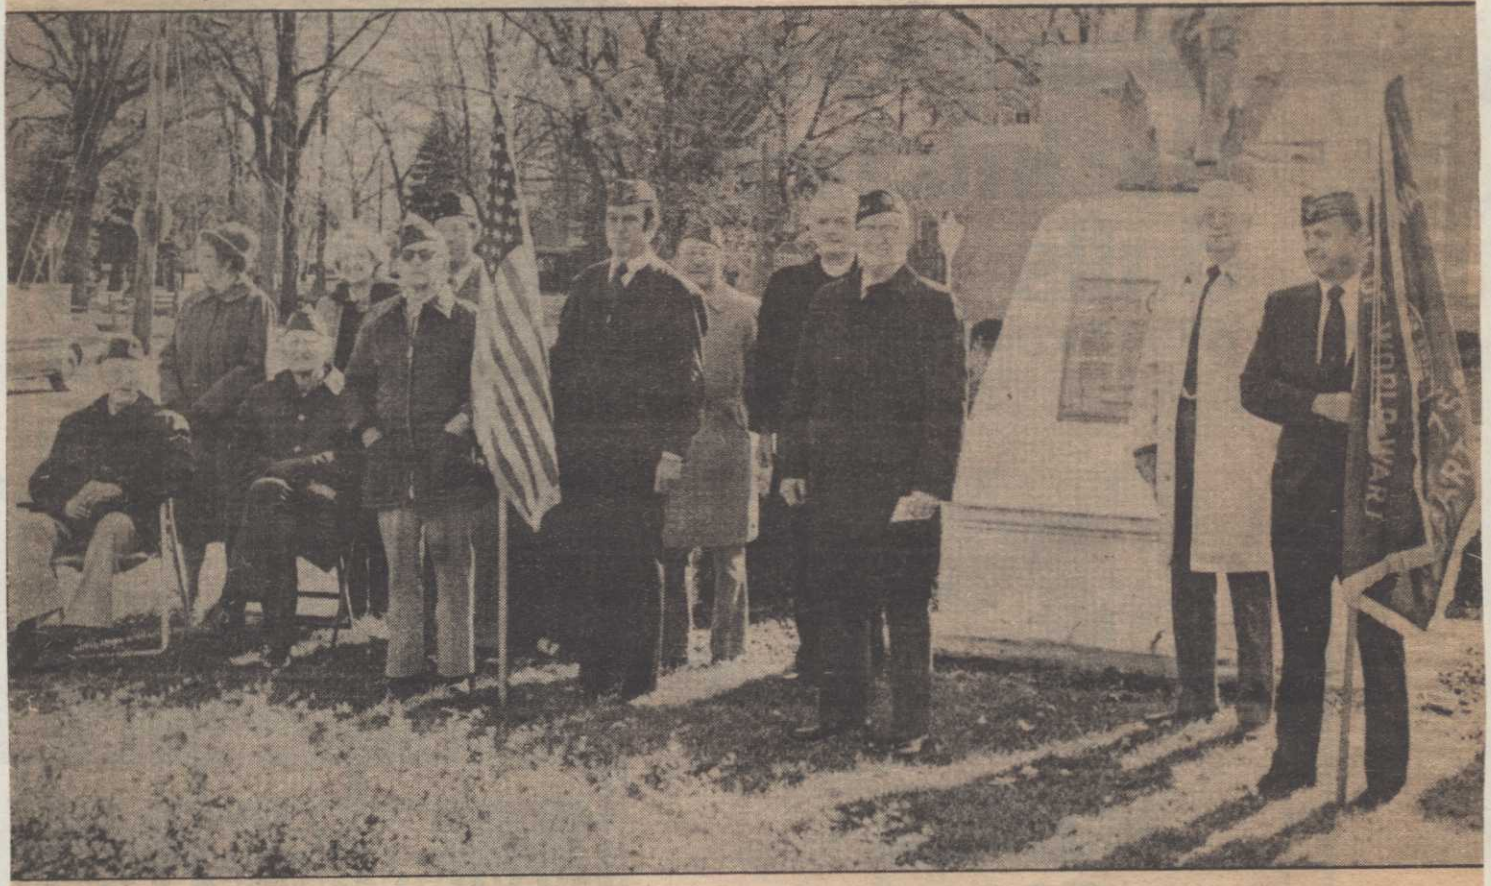
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Finally the guns were silent, and then came the peace



On Nov. 11, 1918, an armistice was signed in Europe ending World War I. On the anniversary of the peace, which has now become Veterans' Day, former soldiers throughout the country join in honoring the dead and the nearly 30 million living Americans who served this country in time of war. Gathered at Hobart's Doughboy Monument last week were: (from l. to r.) S.P. Coker, May Flagler, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Collins, Chuck McIntire, Jim Knouff, Gene Ellis, Jerry Rees, Rev. Richard Hucelson, George Flagler, Mayor Cal Green and William Demmon. HG 11-19-80